Program Details
Date	20/04/23
Participants	10 children and their parents, Staff of DSLS
Venue	Auditorium, Dr. SRCISH

Objective: To promote awareness and inclusion of children with autism spectrum disorder

Brief overview:

The department of Speech Language Studies and the department of Psychology in association with IQAC conducted an art competition for children with autism spectrum disorder. The event conducted in commemoration of World Autism Day 2023, aimed at promoting awareness and inclusion of children under the spectrum.

Dr. Pratibha Karanth (Founder Director- COMDEALL Trust) inaugurated the session, following which she and Dr. Anita Reddy (HOD of Department of Speech Language Studies) addressed the audience.

Children falling under the spectrum of autism attending therapy in both departments were invited for the event. The paintings created were in line with the theme of the event which was 'Seeing the world from a different angle'. Painting sets and refreshments were distributed to the eleven children who participated. The paintings were judged by teachers from Sunaad school, and the best three pieces of artwork were given prizes.
